

John Hafen's Pictures Exhibited in Chicago

Utah's artists are receiving recognition in a constantly widening field. While Lon J. Haddock, secretary of the Manufacturers' and Merchants' association, was walking through the streets of Chicago a few days ago, he passed the store of Marshall Field & Co. In one of the big show windows, he saw displayed some paintings of scenes in the west and he joined the crowd that was gazing at the works of art. Then he thrilled with pride on discovering that the paintings were the works of John Hafen, of Springville, Utah.

"The store was making a feature of Hafen's paintings," said Haddock. "There is a crowd constantly about the show windows."

Object Lesson That Proved a Surprise (Special.)
Decatur, Ala., Sept. 12.—Wilbur Harris, a prosperous merchant of Decatur, was presented by his wife with $1,000 in cash which she told him she had taken from the daily sales from time to time while he was away delivering goods. She said she did this in order to show Harris how easily leaks could occur. Harris had never missed the money.

AUTUMN LINEN SALE

MORE DECIDED REDUCTIONS THAN ON ANY OTHER LINEN OCCASION

- There is a drop in linens and cotton goods.
- We welcome it.
- It means lowered prices.
- How long it will last no man can foretell. But we do know that there has been a check, an unsteadiness, a decline—at the mills, where prices are formulated according to the raw material market.
- Some manufacturers were heavily stocked with raw material. Then, observing the tendency, hastened to dispose of their stock. In some instances at probably cost—for a declining market suggests quick action.
- Our buyer was there.
- Keith-O'Brien Company is prepared to inaugurate a linen sale that will delight and stir customers to enthusiasm.
- All new linens!
- Means our new Fall stock.
- Just at the opening of the season!
- At the lowest price linens have been sold in years.
- Therefore the biggest linen sale Salt Lake has enjoyed.

CORSET DEMONSTRATION Starts Monday--Conducted by an Eastern Corset Specialist

You are cordially invited to visit the Corset Department of Keith-O'Brien Company and avail yourself of the services of the expert corset specialist, Mrs. L. G. Stebbins, of the designing and fitting department of the celebrated Redfern Corsets, who will give special free fittings during a limited period beginning Monday, September fourteenth.

These corsets display admirably the rounded form, the long lines and the height of bust suited to the season's modes. They are the creation of the world's greatest designers, not one shape, but a variety of shapes for slender, medium and stout figures. If properly fitted, anyone can be corsetted comfortably and correctly from our splendid assortment.

THE secret of a beautiful, fashionable figure is in the corseting. There's a natural chic contour and poise to the form corseted in a Redfern Model that is pleasingly apparent in this picture.

The exceedingly slim, lithe effect, with the accentuated smallness of waist and sloping, graceful hips, is secured by a Redfern Whalebone Model, with any height of bust desired or required by the form.

Beautiful model, boned with the purest Arctic Whalebone, the tips rounded and celluloid dipped to prevent breaking through the fabrics, which are exquisitely fine but firm.

A highly approved new model of the long back and high bust design, giving to a medium figure the curves and length between bust and waist now considered correct form.

A new model with extremely long back, for all medium figures. It has a high, full bust, and very long sloping waist. The long soft skirt fits the figure comfortably and gives unusually graceful lines.
